I found the aardvark!

We're at it again. Starting this week, and every week to follow, we will once again be hiding the aardvark somewhere in the newspaper. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down page 3 as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

As a special Halloween Aardvark Giveaway, we will be giving out a Halloween Gift Basket to the winner of our monthly "I Found the Aardvark Contest". This basket will include over five pounds of candy, stuffed aardvarks, a Wanderer T-shirt and anything else we can find in the giveaway drawer! The winner will be selected from all the correct answers picked by the deadline and the prize will have to be picked up at our office. Only one entry per household per issue please. We may even be able to put together a couple of runner up giveaways, so be sure to enter!

To enter, simply find the aardvark in this issue (or the October 13 issue), then go to our web page and select the link "I'm a Wanderer" and from there you will see the "I Found the Aardvark" entry page. If you would like to enter by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

Deadline for the Halloween Gift Basket is noon time on Friday, October 28. Good luck!

Weekly Give Away

This week we are giving away an autographed copy of Rob Gonsalves movie review compilation. To enter simply go to The Wanderer web page at www.wanderer.com, click on the Contest Link and enter the contest code RG018. Then answer the following question:

In the new movie DOMINO (reviewed in this issue), what singer/actor plays a character named "The Wanderer"?

Good luck, we will select a winner from all answers received by noontime on October 28, 2005.

To enter through the mail, send a postcard with your name address, contest number and answer to: Wanderer Contest, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739

Above: This odd couple was found riding a wagon in a pumpkin patch at Eastover Farm in Rochester recently and can be glimpsed again this weekend during a walking tour and barnyard visit sponsored by the Trustees of Reservations. The event will take place on Saturday, October 22 at 10:00 am and will include a hayride through the fields, pumpkin picking, and a pumpkin-painting activity. For more information, please call 508-679-2115, extension 10, or check out www.thetrustees.org. (Photo by Kenneth J. Souza).

On the cover: It's fall harvest time ... and in Rochester that means cranberries! Although not as prevalent as they once were, several family-owned cranberry bogs and farms are still maintained and thrive within the quaint farming community of Rochester. These ripe cranberries are now "ready for the picking" at the Fielding family farm in Rochester. (Photo by and courtesy of Greta Grundstrom).

In Bog Country

Family Roots Run Deep in Cranberries

By Gretchen Grundstrom

Dianne Fielding's family roots are intertwined with the six acres of cranberry vines on her 55-acre property in Rochester. Ms. Fielding and her late husband Richard purchased the first 10 acres of land in 1965 for "I think it was $750 cash," she said on a rainy Saturday afternoon in her Wareham kitchen while a pot of homemade beef stew simmered on the stove.

"We had very little equipment and the cash flow wasn't much with two little babies at the time," she said, referring to two of her five children. However, "(Richard) wanted to get a bog and work it and own it and I was all for it."

Richard was a welder and repaired machinery including bog sanding machines. Among his customers was Walter Denham Sr., Fielding's father. Though Mr. Denham was hardly enthralled with the romance that blossomed between Richard and Dianne, who was 10 years his junior, they were married in 1961 when she was 17.

Ms. Fielding's parents, grandparents, aunts, and uncles made extra money working on cranberry bogs for as long as she can remember. As a child, "My mother had me in a box and pulled me along in the cranberry bog," she laughed, adding: "Everything was scooped back then." The farming skills she developed as a child and young adult would now help her and her family grow the new bog back into a farm.

Her face ripened with a smile as she remembered driving down the dirt road of their newly purchased property. "It was fall and all the leaves and pine needles had fallen over the road," she exclaimed.

The three-acre bog had been neglected and needed a lot of work.

First they reclaimed the property by scraping off the dead vines. Next, Richard got pruned vines from growers that he did welding and other repair jobs for. They were a mixture of berry types, but he would get as many plantings as he could and over the years the bog was eventually replanted.

Almost a decade later, in the early 1970s, the Fieldings had their first crop. Now, some four decades later, the family has two thriving bogs, but struggles remain.

"We have no control over weather, machinery breaking down, or insects," Ms. Fielding said. The Early Black berries on one of the family's three-acre bogs were wet-picked two weeks ago. However, the Howes cranberries that have since replaced the original vines planted by Richard are dry-picked and the recent soggy weather has caused a slight delay in the harvesting.

But that hasn't dampened Fielding's spirits. She said the family will harvest the bog this week rather than last week and she is thrilled with her crop this year.

She also said there is "A sense of purpose (with) owning a farm and working with your hands. A pride when you harvest your crop. Knowing that you did the best you could for the year." Ms. Fielding's land provides her with identity and keeps her well in touch with her family's farming roots.

According to Susan LaFleur, librarian for the Rochester Historical Society, the society really does not have any information on the history of growing cranberries in town. However, after some digging, Ms. LaFleur found a quote from a man born in 1865 named L.C. Humphrey. He was well-known in town and owned a farm on Rounseville Road. Within his memoir collection was this quote: "Dr. Briggs was the first man to cultivate cranberries in town (in) 1872. Dr. Caleb Briggs, of Snipatuit Road, he built and cultivated several acres. Had a good crop."

Though not much may be gleaned from the quote, it illustrates how firmly Rochester's history is planted in agriculture and the town's strong farming identity.

Rochester Conservation Agent Laurell Farinon said: "(Rochester's) historically been a farming community — agriculture, forestry, hayfields, and cornfields." So, converting to bog farming as the landscape changed over the years made sense for the 39-square-mile (24,960 acre) area.

According to Shirley DeLima, Administrative Assistant to the Rochester Assessor's office, "We do have a lot of bogs for a small town." Ms. DeLima sorted through every bog deed on record to find out just how much bog acreage the town assesses. According to her records, about 1,283 acres are considered bog. Of that, individuals own 324.3 acres, while 958.7 acres are listed as incorporated in some manner. An additional 2,465.4 acres are classified as land related to the production and operation of a bog. That means roughly 3748.4 acres — or 15 percent of Rochester — is assessed as bog and bog-related land.

Jeff LaFleur, Executive Director of the Cape Cod Cranberry Grower's Association, said cranberry bogs are "an important part of all southeastern Massachusetts. Rochester is more associated with other types of agriculture and has been supportive of agriculture which has created its identity. There is (plenty) of diversified agriculture in town."

For comparison, the bog acreage in surrounding towns in 2003 was: Carver 3,600; Wareham 1,700; Middleboro 1,600; and Rochester and Plymouth around 1,300 acres.

Mr. LaFleur, who lives in Plymouth but has relatives in Rochester, said the town "has a lot to offer. People want to live there. Early on, folks in Rochester recognized the value of preserving land — as a sense of place — but also saving the bay and working to help preserve land for farms."

Ms. Farinon said: "People say Rochester is God's country because it has a significant area of undeveloped land, but it's slowly getting more developed. People appreciate the landscape more. There are vast views of land that haven't been developed."

And Ms. Fielding intends to keep her property that way. She keeps a diary of all the fox, blue heron, deer, muskrats, turtles, and bluebirds that visit her bogs.

"It's our nature paradise," she said. "It's the nature of being out here in the fresh air and seeing the beauty around you."

She can recall cooking hot dogs on the campfire next to wet shoes and dirty socks from her children romping all day in the woods when they were young. "It was a haven for boys," she said. "We think it's a pretty special place. Our roots are here and we'd like to hold onto it for our future generations."

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

October 18, 2005

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, October 18 at 6:02 pm by Chairman Stephen J. Lombard. Also present were Selectman Raymond H. Andrews, Selectman Jordan C. Collyer, Town Administrator Michael J. Botelho, and Assistant to the Town Administrator Melody Pacheco.

The board first approved the minutes of the October 4 meeting (both Open and Executive Sessions), voted to sign and approve bonds for the Brant Beach Water Pollution Trust, and voted to grant all liquor establishments in town the option to remain open until 2:00 am on New Year's Eve as per their annual practice.

At 6:05 pm the board met with members of the town's newly-formed Capital Planning Committee. "Very shortly you will be receiving all the capital requests that are being presented to the Town Administrator as part of the capital planning process," Chairman Lombard said. "You will then be able to develop a five-year plan ... which is extremely important for our bond rating (and future financial planning). You are representing this Board of Selectmen in this capital plan ... and you need to come back with a prioritized list."

Chairman Lombard stressed the importance of preparing a long-term capital plan in terms of future borrowing and purchasing needs and to ensure that the town doesn't continually dip into Free Cash for these "big ticket" items. As such, the Capital Planning Committee will be preparing and presenting a report in January for the next Annual Town Meeting.

"It's important because it takes it out of the Selectmen's hands and out of the Finance Committee's hands," Chairman Lombard said. "It's a short period of work — maybe three or four months — but it's important."

Chairman Lombard directed the committee to appoint a chairman and then accept their charge to begin prioritizing the various requests for capital purchases from town departments.

"As part of your review, I think you need to take field trips to inspect the equipment they're asking you to replace," Chairman Lombard said. "We haven't done any major capital replacements in some years."

"As the by-law states, you've got to come up with a five-year plan," Selectman Andrews said. "There's going to be a lot of competition for short dollars."

"There are so many things that we've repaired rather than replaced in the past ... for the sake of saving money," agreed Capital Planning Committee member and former Selectman Barry Denham.

"We're faced with all kinds of things this year," Chairman Lombard said. "And I know the budget is going to increase because of it."

At 6:20 pm the board met with Town Engineer

Dental Disease

My dog's breath is pretty bad. Is there something that I can feed him to make it smell better?

Elevate your dogs' upper lip and look at his molars. They should be white and shiny. If they look brown near the gums you should schedule an appointment with your veterinarian to discuss a dental cleaning. Dirty teeth and infected gums that usually come with them often cause a foul order, pain and the potential for tooth loss. Every time your dog chews he may experience a bacterial shower into his blood stream which can affect his heart valves, kidneys and other organs. Have the teeth cleaned and discuss ways to prevent dental disease in the future.

Bob Field to discuss various ongoing road projects. Mr. Field said he wanted to give an update to the board on recommended work to be done on North Street, Long Plain Road, and Mattapoisett Neck Road.

One of Mr. Field's concerns was the lack of a sidewalk near the Park 'N' Ride along North Street, which he suggested could be redone with a narrow, paved five-foot sidewalk similar to that on Tallman Street. He also noted the need for work at the intersection of Park and North Streets, which is cracked and broken.

As for Long Plain Road, Mr. Field proposed to pulverize the pavement, mix it with the subsurface gravel, and overlay it with a new surface, probably fresh asphalt. "It costs less to go in there and pulverize and blend it, but I think we have the Chapter 90 money to get it done," he said.

Lastly, Mr. Field suggested a similar reworking of Mattapoisett Neck Road, which has deep cracks close to Route 6. "I talked to (Highway Surveyor) Wes Bowman and he said he really needs to get (Mattapoisett Neck Road) done," he said. "We'd want to look at some sort of draining work, too."

Mr. Field said they were hoping to do Long Plain and Mattapoisett Neck Roads as a single project at a later date, but the work along North Street needs to begin as soon as possible. "One of the things we have to look at with North Street is what time of day we'll be doing the work," Mr. Field said. "We might want to look at doing the work (at night) ... to avoid traffic problems."

"How long do you think North Street will take, in theory?" Selectman Collyer asked.

"About the same as Tallman Street — maybe a week or two," Mr. Field said. "I'd say at least two good weeks, especially if we're doing some curbing work."

Under Notes and Announcements for the week, the board:

- Noted the Mattapoisett Water Department's office is now located at 19A County Road for daily business rather than the old 33 Church Street address.

- Announced the next regular Selectmen's meeting would be held on Tuesday, November 1 at 6:00 pm in the Mattapoisett Town Hall.

- Noted a Bike Path Committee meeting will be their findings and recommendations in the aftermath of a recent survey conducted over the previous summer and several meetings this year. Committee members included Neil Balboni, Jay Crowley, Priscilla Ditchfield, and Sis Durkee, with Chairman Reg Foster speaking on behalf of the group.

"Our recommendation overall is it is feasible to have fireworks during the summer in Marion which are safe, affordable and family-friendly," Mr. Foster said. "In response to the letter that we sent out, we received about $20,000 in (donations). Our key motivation here has been to exercise some flexibility in choosing a date (for the fireworks). If we do that, then there is evidence the size of the event will be much more manageable. We also think it's vital to establish a new Fireworks Committee with rejuvenated leadership ... to take responsibility for the event's coordination and fund-raising."

"First of all, I'd like to say this is exactly what we intended," Selectman Jeffrey said. "The concerns we had a year ago (which led to the) postponement of the fireworks were well-founded. The one thing I might suggest is I think it is extremely important to have a (Fireworks Committee) as you suggested. I certainly think we should go ahead, but I do think that leadership is important."

Mr. Foster said some members of the Feasibility Study Committee have expressed interest in serving on the newly-appointed Fireworks Committee, if that is the will of the Selectmen, and they are ready to help with the transition as needed.

In this age of the Internet, libraries are more important than ever. Although it would seem just the opposite, universities and towns across the country are reporting increased use of their libraries. Libraries are more than just a repository for books or a provider of Internet service for those who haven't computers. They are gathering places for children, students and adults to attend programs, share ideas and engage in conversation. Although libraries will always serve the important role of being a place to access information, borrow books, tapes or DVD's, read periodicals and get help with research, they are also fast becoming social centers. People whose daily routine was work and home now use the library as a place to go to enrich and broaden their life.

The library building is critical in this important and expanded use. An Article by Scott Carlson in "The Chronicle of Higher Education" (September 30, 2005) noted that a report of a survey of 180 institutional libraries indicated that in increased library usage "basic comforts rated highly: the quality of natural lighting, the quality of work spaces, the quality of heating and air-conditioning; and the overall ambiance of the building... If a library is deserted, it's not necessarily because the Internet has taken over. It's more likely ... that the building itself is outdated, poorly lit, underfinanced and depressing."

We in Mattapoisett are lucky to have our library in the heart of our village. We are lucky to have this wonderful building with an attractive and reasonable plan for renovation and expansion that will be a welcoming and quality space. We are lucky to have residents, both year-round and summer, who have contributed $1.6 million because they understand the value of a library in a democracy and to all the citizens of the town. A vote yes for the Mattapoisett Free Public Library will not only meet the current needs but will ensure the same benefits for future generations that our forefathers provided for us.

Trish Arnold

I think the health of our civilization; the depth of our awareness about the underpinnings of our culture and our concern for the future can all be tested by how well we support our libraries.

Chairman Henry felt that the appointed chairman of the new Fireworks Committee should not be the sole person in charge of making the call whether the fireworks proceed or not, especially given prior years' attempts to collect last-minute funding.

"It's clear under state law that a single person has overall responsibility for this event, and that is Fire Chief Rick Guerzoni ... in consultation with Police Chief Lincoln Miller," Mr. Foster said. "Those public safety officials make the call (of) whether to have (the fireworks) or not. The committee would just help facilitate the coordination and fund-raising (aspects)."

Mr. Foster suggested they move forward with appointing a Fireworks Committee as soon as possible to plan for a July 2006 event.

"We don't have to raise $40,000 to have the fireworks," agreed committee member Sis Durkee.

"We have approximately $21,000 ... in uncashed checks right now and about $3,000 and change leftover from last year," Mr. Foster said. "That is enough to legally sign a contract for the fireworks with the barge company. My concern now is to rejuvenate the committee. We probably could, over the next few weeks, see if there are people interested in serving on the Fireworks Committee and then, at the next Selectmen's meeting, bring forward potential appointees and cash those checks. I don't think it's reasonable to hold those checks for any length of time."

"Personally, I'm ready to adopt the recommendations of the Fireworks Feasibility Study Committee," Chairman Henry said.

With that, the board unanimously voted to adopt the committee's recommendations and also charged the committee members with soliciting candidates for the full Fireworks Committee and report those findings back at their next regular meeting on November 1.

At 7:26 pm the board met with A. Lee Hayes along with members of the Mattapoissett River Valley Committee, Department of Public Works (DPW) Superintendent Rob Zora, Patrick O'Neale of Tatum and Howard Engineering, and former members of the Marion Water Committee to provide a status update on the various town water projects both in progress and soon to be.

"Tonight we're going to cover the status of the Mattapoisett Valley filter plant, the Mattapoisett Valley transmission lines to Marion, storage tanks on Benson Brook Road, Mill Street, Point Road and Great Hill, a street paving plan, and how all this will affect future water rates," Mr. Hayes said.

According to Mr. Hayes, with the soon-to-be-added one-million-gallon storage tank on Benson Brook Road and the three existing town tanks on Mill Street, Point Road and Great Hill, the town will have "more capacity than it will need" and "long-term storage capacity," he said.

"The Mill Street tank is currently offline and we're doing the needed repairs," Mr. Zora said. "That should be wrapped up and back online sometime in December. The Point Road tank is earmarked to be done in the spring ... (and) the Great Hill tank went out to bid (but) came in very high. We decided not to do work on that tank now and monitor it (to) get as much life out of it as we can."

"Everything you've heard about tonight (has been) discussed at some point at Town Meeting," Mr. Hayes said. "So nothing here is new. But all these projects will affect water rates."

"As everyone who pays water bills in Marion knows, we've been able to keep the water rates fairly level," Mr. Dolan added. "Obviously, you've heard about projects here tonight ... which will (cause) a need for increase in water rates. The Mattapoisett River Valley (and) storage tank work will add about $437,000 in additional debt alone ... (and) by FY 2008 my best estimate is we'll be looking at a water rate increase of about 50 percent. It would have been great if Marion could have found a single 'magic bullet' for all its water woes, but that never happened."

"We now have four pieces of work that need to be done," Mr. Hayes said. "One is the Water/Sewer Rate Committee, which is comprised of the financial folks in town; the second piece is the oversight of the water projects that are about to start like the tank at Benson Brook and water line distribution; third is the Mattapoissett River Valley Committee, which is up and running; and the fourth is something we'd like to suggest: begin work on water conservation issues and look for another well site in Marion ... as a backup source."

In other matters, the board:

- Voted to establish a new Parks Committee consisting of the following: the Tree Warden, the Recreation Committee Director, and a member of the Tree Planting Committee — all with initial terms of one year each.

- Voted to appoint newly-selected Harbormaster Michael Cormier for a probationary term through January 1, 2007 in keeping with their past practice for hiring new department heads. "I just think it's a good practice," Chairman Henry said. "I think it's consistent that he has to pass through the same gate that everyone else did."

- Voted to approve two one-day all-alcohol licenses to the Marion Social Club and the Marion VFW

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

October 17, 2005

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, October 17 at 7:04 pm by Chairman Gary Laboa. Also present were Selectman Richard Nunes, Selectman Bradford Morse, Town Administrator James Huntoon, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere.

The board first unanimously approved the minutes of the October 3 meeting, after which Town Administrator James Huntoon presented his weekly report. Mr. Huntoon advised the next Tri-Town Selectmen's meeting has been rescheduled to Thursday, October 27 at 6:30 pm in the Media Room at Old Rochester Regional High School.

At 7:08 pm the board met with members of the Board of Assessors (BOA) for the annual Tax Classification Hearing. "This is a public hearing to determine the tax classification for the town and it has been duly advertised," Chairman Laboa explained.

"There is really very little change in the percentages (of residential and commercial property) this year," said Assessor Jana Cavanaugh. "It would be our recommendation to maintain a single tax rate for all tax classes."

According to Ms. Cavanaugh, the total residential property valuation for FY 2006 is $666,728,171 or about 87.9 percent, which is slightly up from FY 2005's

ANOTHER VOTE, LAST OPPORTUNITY

Food for Thought

*Present Library Condition...

The beautiful, 100 year old building is falling apart inside we are told. Plagued by leaks, old furnace, lack of space, mold, ADA access, bathrooms, wiring, an unstable, unsafe balcony. Perhaps it is time to move on, but are there better options? The "old" wing of Center School, or perhaps a new building. The 100 year old girl could be put to more appropriate use. Food for Thought.

*Debt Exclusion...

Debt exclusion or Proposition 2 ½...Call it what you will but "A rose by any other name is still a rose." Food for Thought.

*Growing real estate tax "pipeline"...

Sounds like this pipeline is soon to be full! And so too may our sewer lines! How much will Fairhaven take? Our growth requires foresight and our future sewer needs are yet to be determined. Will we soon need to fund a necessary, costly Regional Water Treatment Plant? Food for Thought.

* Last Opportunity...

This could be the last time you are able to vote, so that you can leave this world debt free and pass this legacy onto your children and grandchildren. $26 per household for forty years. Who can anticipate what true necessities may arise in the next forty years. Food for Thought.

*Maintenance, etc...

What resources have been budgeted (or even estimated) in order to operate and maintain this renovation? Have we forgotten our school renovation after which we had to fund additional (seemingly unanticipated) operation costs and costs for construction/engineering oversights? Food for Thought.

*Priorities...

Mattapoisett is growing, and is expected to continue growing. But growth is unpredictable and we must fund our most necessary needs before those that enrich our lives! For years we have tabled the very real needs of our fire department. Neglecting true public safety and infrastructure needs will be detrimental to our quality of life and expose us to potential liability. Food for Thought.

The bottom line is that we need to refine our priorities, and finance our necessities to protect our financial future!

$644,789,636 or 87.46 percent.

"The percentage has changed a little bit ... the commercial has dropped a little," Selectman Nunes noted.

"The main thing is that the residential (percentage) has stayed about the same," Ms. Cavanaugh said.

With that, the board unanimously voted to maintain a single tax rate for both commercial and residential property within the town.

At 7:12 pm the board met with Jill Bodeau and members of the Rochester Council on Aging (COA) Board of Directors to discuss job descriptions and vacancies at the Rochester Senior Center.

"I assume you're presenting this to us so we can get a full picture (of your needs)," Chairman Laboa said.

Ms. Bodeau concurred and added they are hoping to advertise and post for a new full-time COA Director.

"We would love to get somebody already certified," Ms.
Bodeau said. "I only know of one or two people within the area who are certified now. One of the things the board has been talking about is getting the Senior Center itself accredited."

"The normal procedure is to post it for one or two weeks in-house," Mr. Huntoon said. "Then if you don't get a response or you feel no one is qualified, you can advertise it."

Ms. Bodeau said the full-time position would be 40 hours a week at an estimated salary of $40,000. In the meantime, they are looking to continue budgeting a part-time, 20-hour-a-week COA Director to fill their current vacancy.

"Come next year if we vote on a 40-hour-a-week (COA) Director, we'll have the money in the budget," Selectman Nunes said.

"By the Town Meeting funding the 20 hours, that's not saying they've approved the full-time (COA) Director, either," Chairman Laboa said.

"It doesn't require a (Town Meeting) vote, because it's not changing the compensation plan," Mr. Huntoon said.

Selectman Morse wanted to know why they needed to fund 20 hours now when they are planning to hire a full-time COA Director.

"Maybe you might just want to leave $5,000 in that line item instead," Mr. Huntoon suggested.

Ms. Bodeau said they likely won't have a full-

ATTENTION DRIVERS

If you are involved in a collision you have the right to have your investment, your vehicle, repaired at a shop of your choice. Your insurance company may suggest a list of repair shops. Do not be persuaded by this list, it is not a guarantee of quality of services, nor does it limit your options. You want a shop who will work for you and with you to put your vehicle back to pre-accident condition. COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. is a licensed, bonded, registered repair shop with the state of Massachusetts. We work with all insurance companies to expedite your repairs. The important thing to remember is we repair the vehicle for you, our customers, not the insurance companies. So remember, if the need arises, contact COLLISION SERVICES OF MARION, INC. to get back on the road.

time person hired until after January 1.

"Realistically, I think you're right," Chairman Laboa said. "You probably won't hire a full-time director until the beginning of January."

As such, the board members suggested the COA might want to leave the option open to amend the article on next week's Special Town Meeting warrant to fund the position as needed.

"From what you've shown us, I don't disagree that you need a full-time director ... (but) I'd like to see what the Personnel Board has to say," Chairman Laboa said.

At 7:30 pm the board met with Arnold Johnson and Chris Byron of the Planning Board to discuss the procedure for road acceptances.

"Prior to (the Selectmen) signing the (Special Town Meeting) warrant, we indicated that the two subdivision (articles) weren't ready to go," Mr. Johnson said. "Somehow that got lost in translation."

"Just so you know, (the Planning Board) doesn't approve anything when it comes to street acceptances," Mr. Huntoon said. "You just report on it (at Town Meeting)."

"The proper procedure under (Massachusetts General Laws) is the Selectmen are supposed to submit a proposed (street) layout to the Planning Board so they can give a report (back) to the Selectmen," Mr. Byron said. "Do we have a copy of the proposed layouts? We didn't have it; it wasn't submitted to us. I think we should have a paper trail so we know just what has been done."

"If the Board of Selectmen endorses the layout (at Town Meeting), you can still (approve) the street acceptances," Mr. Huntoon said.

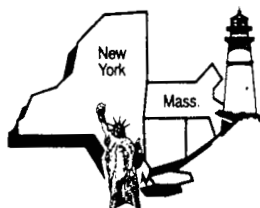

"If land is going to be taken for the layout, then you have to give notice no sooner than seven days," Mr. Byron added.

"How did these articles get on the warrant?"

Chairman Laboa asked.

"These have been hanging around for better than a year," Mr. Huntoon said. "If you were technically going to look at any of the streets in this town — and, indeed, many of the streets in the Commonwealth — they have not been laid out properly."

"When I see 'proposed by-laws' or 'changes in by-laws,' as a Selectman I'm assuming the Planning Board has signed off on them," Selectman Nunes said. "The Planning Board is the (group) reviewing the layout of the street and (endorsing) whether it is properly graded. We're looking to the Planning Board to do their due diligence."

"I don't want to sign off on something I haven't seen," Mr. Byron said.

"Why wouldn't this come to us from Planning Board?" Chairman Laboa asked.

"These are two very bad examples of how the system should be exercised," Mr. Huntoon said. "These are six years old and we're just trying to correct the sins of the past."

"The problem is you all need to sit down and decide how to do it ... because there are no two (street acceptances) in town that have been done the same way," said Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge.

"The problem we have right now is we have two (subdivision proposals) ... and they're on the (Special Town Meeting) warrant next week," Selectman Nunes

"I don't have a problem endorsing these plans and giving them to the Planning Board for approval, but I do have a problem endorsing them for placement on (the Town Meeting warrant) without their input," Selectman Morse said.

"We haven't seen them ... we haven't approved them," Mr. Byron agreed.

"The Board of Selectmen should vote to refer the proposed road layouts for Lady Slipper Lane, Boxberry Lane, Mayflower Lane, and Thistle Lane to the Planning Board for their review," Mr. Huntoon said. With that, the board unanimously voted and approved said motion and also voted to table the corresponding articles — Articles

"I agree we shouldn't be scrambling to correct this procedure before next week," Chairman Laboa said. "And it upsets me greatly that it was done (improperly)."

At 8:18 pm the board met briefly with Armand Bergeron of Rochester Youth Baseball (RYB), who attended a deposition earlier in the day regarding the RYB's request to install light fixtures at the baseball field in Gifford Park. The Rochester Historic District Commission had denied the RYB's initial request and RYB is appealing their decision in court.

"It has become evident to me in this whole process that the only people ultimately affected are the kids," Mr. Bergeron said. "The personalities are so strong at this point ... it's come to a borderline lack of professionalism on both sides. I wonder whether the Selectmen would consider calling an Executive Session to put an end to this, because it's ridiculous."

The board agreed to coordinate an Executive Session with representatives of Rochester Youth Baseball, the Rochester Park Commission, and the Rochester Historic District Commission to possibly come up with a reasonable compromise to this issue without incurring further legal expenses.

In other matters, the board:

- Received a letter of resignation from George Church who is stepping down from the Cemetery Commission due to health reasons;

Wet Week for ORR

It was a rainy week for Old Rochester Regional High School as the Boys Soccer Team missed out on two opportunities for play against Case and Fairhaven High. In a conference where it's anyone's game, the boys are making some noise with their 4-7 record.

Junior sweeper Conor Brown is pleased with the team's performance this season. "We have been playing good soccer and have had all the opportunities to score," Brown said, "we have been competing in every game but just coming up short, we have worked hard non-stop all year round and have learned a lot from our coach and each other. We keep playing hard and get the satisfaction that we have given it our best effort." The boys will face Greater New Bedford Voke Tech and Wareham during the upcoming week.

The Girls Soccer Team was dealt a similar fate when it came to the past week's weather. Currently 9-2 overall and 9-1 in the South Coast Conference (SCC), the girls have already qualified for the state tournament. Chances to play were lost this week when the rainy weather postponed all of the girls scheduled games. The games against Case and Fairhaven will be rescheduled, and with top scorer senior Aileen Brown leading the way, the girls will play Martha's Vineyard and Case in the week ahead.

Managing to make use of their muddy field once this week, the Girls Field Hockey Team suffered their second loss of the season to Sandwich. With an 8-1-2 record, the girls have already qualified for states. "I'm excited for states," said senior captain Amanda Tower. "It's so much fun working with the girls in games because everyone works well together as a team." The girls will play Seekonk and Bourne this week.

The Girls Volleyball Team had an exciting victory last Friday against longtime rivals Fairhaven High. The 3-1 win leaves the team tied for third place in the SCC with Fairhaven. With an overall record of 8-7, and 8-5 in the SCC, the girls hope to seal their tournament spot in the upcoming school week with games against Greater New Bedford Voke Tech, Dighton-Rehoboth, and Wareham.

Hard at work is the ORR Cross Country Team. The girls team holds a 6-5 record. The boys and girls traveled to Fairhaven High last Tuesday for a dual meet versus Dighton-Rehoboth and Fairhaven. The girls came out on top against Fairhaven while the boys fell to both teams. Jared Dorderville and Isak Theustad performed exceptionally for the boys team, while top runners for the girls included Angie Kantner and Tiffany Rozenas.

The Bulldog Football Team suffered a tough loss to Dighton-Rehoboth on Sunday, with a 14-9 final score. The Bulldogs came into the second half trailing 14-0. They managed to get 9 points under their belts with senior Ryan Best scoring a touchdown and Jake Serrousi contributed a PAT to the scoreboard. The boys are 3-3 overall and 2-1 in the SCC. The boys will next battle Seekonk for their Homecoming Game on Friday night, October 21 at 7:00 pm on the David S. Hagen Field at the high school.

Most exciting of all, the Boys Golf Team holds a 14-5-1 record, and have qualified for the state tournament. Top members of the team include Tom Mills, Greg Maynard, Sean Smalley, and Andrew Martin. The four should prove to make an impact in post-season play. Last week the team went 2-1 coming out on top over Wareham and Greater New Bedford Voke Tech and coming up short to Bourne's team. The boys have been training hard and show eagerness for the matches ahead.

Hockey Unlimited

Hockey Unlimited, an organization founded nearly 41 years ago and committed to teaching the fundamentals of ice hockey to local youths ranging in age from 9 to 14 years, plans to begin its 41st season at Travis Roy Rink, inside Tabor Academy's Fish Center for Health and Athletics. This year's program will consist of approximately 16 weekly sessions. The registration fee is $295 for the entire season, payable to "Hockey Unlimited" in advance. The money covers ice rental expenses and all other operating costs.

Each participant should complete a registration form and return it with a check made payable to "Hockey Unlimited" to: Hockey Unlimited, c/o Dyer Capital Management, P.O. Box 388, Marion, MA 02738.

YMCA on Sunday, October 30, Halloween means a safe and imaginative experience, for little goblins and their families alike.

So bring the whole family to Halloween at the YMCA where there will be fun for kids of all ages. For the past year, the Gleason Family YMCA has hosted a variety of organized activities, this year including a Halloween Hayride, pumpkin painting and Halloween treats and all in a safe, supervised environment. Sure, Halloween means bags of treats; but it's also a day for kids to use their imaginations in the costumes that they create and wear.

• Under 11 Boys: The U11 Mariner boys lost their first match of the fall season 3-1 on Sunday after a tough fight against Crusaders United from Plymouth. The boys were down 1-0 early in the game after a slow start, but they played tough throughout the remainder of the first half. After giving up two more goals in the second half, Mariner stepped up their game and Andrew Ferreira put one into the net bringing the score to 3-1. The Mariner offense, led by Chris Hiralall, Kyle Gaffney, Alec Dom-pierre, Kevin Noone and Mike Bliss, kept up the pressure to the end. The U11 Boys are now in 2nd place with a 4-1-0 record. They're looking forward to their next match at home against the Western United Club out of Springfield at 4:00 pm on Sunday, October 23.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

It is that time of year when the daylight is shorter, the air is cooler, the leaves are changing and the Mattapoisett Halloween Parade is rapidly approaching. We are officially kicking off our Annual Halloween Fund Drive and once again are asking for your support.

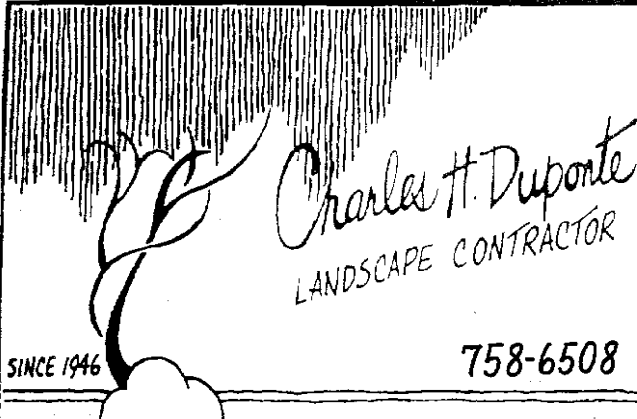

For those of you new to the community or unfamiliar with the Halloween Parade, let me explain. For many years the Mattapoisett Police Department has organized a Halloween Parade for the children of Mattapoisett. It is traditionally held on October 31. The children participate in a parade around the village of Mattapoisett proudly displaying their costumes and anxiously awaiting the results of the costume-judging contest. With so many great costumes, as you may imagine, the judges have a very, very stressful night.

You may have noticed the bright orange canisters in some of the local businesses. Feel free to place a donation in the canister. All of the money donated to the Halloween Fund is used to purchase the candy we distribute to the children and to purchase the bikes and electronic prizes awarded for costumes in each age group and category.

Although the members of the Mattapoisett Police Department organize this gala event, you the business owners and citizens of Mattapoisett, through your generous donations, make the Halloween Parade a success. Every year we begin with a zero balance. What we collect is what we use to put the parade and awards ceremony on.

Some parents and children work several weeks designing their costume and their work does not go unnoticed. Through the years I have found that we have many creative families among us.

The men and women of the police department volunteer their time and work tirelessly to organize this event for our children. Their commitment to the community is very evident daily, but especially on Halloween night for the children.

Please consider supporting our efforts by making a donation payable to the "Mattapoisett Police Halloween Fund." We understand that times are tough and you are asked to donate often by a variety of organizations. Please donate an amount you are comfortable with as every little bit helps make the Halloween Parade the success that it always is due to your generosity.

Donations can be dropped off at the Mattapoisett Police Station or mailed to the Halloween Fund, P.O. Box 436, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

On behalf of the men and women of the Mattapoisett Police Department, I want to thank you for your continued support of our efforts to make Mattapoisett a safe place to live, work and enjoy life as we all know it to be.

Sincerely,

Chief Mary R. Lyons

To the Editor:

Care-A-Thon — a community that cares — Mattapoisett! Over 100 people showed up on Sunday, October 16 to walk or bike to help raise money for families in Mattapoisett who are struggling with cancer. We were able to raise over $1,800 and pledges are still coming in.

All of this wouldn't be possible without the incredible help from so many people. Thank you to the Mattapoisett Police for their guidance and presence; Village Signs for donating signs; Chuck Leonard, owner of Mr. Cesspool in Acushnet, for donating two Port-A-Johns; Mahoney's for allowing us parking

Your Questions on Dental Implants

Q I am missing most of my back teeth and do not wish to lose any of my remaining natural front teeth. I have been through several sets of removable partial dentures but am not comfortable wearing them. Is it possible to have teeth that stay in place permanently, to replace my missing back teeth, but keep my natural teeth in the front?

A Yes. Your situation is very common. First, we will do everything possible to help you keep as many of your natural teeth as possible, as long as the supporting gum and bone are within an acceptable range. A thorough evaluation must be made to determine if any natural teeth are healthy enough to maintain. If you plan to have additional dental treatment done, we do not advise that unhealthy teeth be kept since they are likely to compromise a successful treatment outcome. We must then decide what is suitable for your needs in order to restore your missing back teeth. If you are a good candidate for dental implants, we must determine if bone regeneration will be necessary to help you replace any bone lost, or if the dental implant is all you need to support a fixed (non-removable) bridge. If you have had problems with removable partial dentures in the past, dental implants may be just what you need.

Reading in Rochester

On October 20 and 21 there is a great opportunity to be trained as "Great Books Volunteers" who will provide reading enrichment to students at Rochester's Memorial School. The Great Books program combines outstanding literature with thinking activities and discussions that help students develop essential skills in reading, writing, speaking and listening.

After the training, it is hoped that all trained volunteers will be regular classroom visitors, providing this valuable reading enrichment to all Rochester learners. Ms. Edith Ronn is the new Reading Teacher for students in Grades 3 through 6. Ms. Ronn will be focusing her efforts on assessment and assistance for those students who are having reading difficulties, but not covered by an IEP. Her position is being funded with federal funds offered through the REAPS (Small Rural School Achievement Program) and a Massachusetts Department of Education Educator Quality Grant.

MOVIE REVIEW

Bounty Hunter

By Rob Gonsalves
<http://robsreviews.cjb.net>

Domino. Starring Keira Knightley and Mickey Rourke. Directed by Tony Scott. Running time: 125 minutes. MPAA rating: R.

Domino Harvey, who died last summer at 34, was a model and the daughter of actor Laurence Harvey. Her rootless early life left her with a lot of aggression, which found focus in her second career as a bounty hunter. The director Tony Scott was a friend of hers, and he's made much in the press about how his new film Domino is a tribute to her memory. That'd be nice if it were true, but the only thing Domino pays homage to — or shows affection for — is Scott's heavy hand in the editing room. Sure to be regarded as excruciating by some and electrifying by others, the movie is run through so many filters, film stocks, and Avid whiz-bang it makes Natural Born Killers look like Barry Lyndon.

I usually loathe such hyperactive lab experiments; Oliver Stone, in Natural Born Killers, at least incorporated the scattershot style into his message about how the media fractures us all, and he used it in an emotionally direct (if bullying) way that kept us subliminally connected to the characters. Tony Scott doesn't do anything like that in Domino — there's no real thematic reason for the movie to look or act the way it does; it's just a gimmick. That said, I didn't mind it much. Domino has been lambasted all over the place, but it's not that bad; it leaves us as exhausted as its heroine (Keira Knightley), but much of the ride is amusing.

"Based on a true story — sort of," the ads qualify. Well, Domino is a movie — sort of. It's like an entire season of a nonexistent Domino TV series telescoped frantically into two hours and five minutes of highlights, with all the plot convolutions that implies. Essentially, it's a string of double-crosses and triple-crosses in which Domino and her partners — hard-bitten beef jerky Ed Mosbey (Mickey Rourke) and sensitive ex-con Choco (Edgar Ramirez) — attempt to locate $10 million so that their cut of the take can pay for a young girl's operation. I could try to explain the connection between Domino and the young girl, but it would be the most complicated sentence ever; it involves Delroy Lindo, Mo'Nique, the FBI, the Mafia, the Jerry Springer Show, and a reality show tailing Domino's every move (directed from a trailer by Christopher Walken).

Dabney Coleman is in it. Brian Austin Green and Ian Ziering, veterans of Beverly Hills 90210, are in it as themselves — sort of. Tom Waits is in it (as a character called The Wanderer, no less). Domino is one insane gibbering beast, leagues more idiosyncratic than the average action flick, and I suppose part of this is due to the participation of screenwriter Richard Kelly, who wrote and directed 2001's brilliantly confounding Donnie Darko. I enjoyed seeing Mickey Rourke and Christopher Walken share the screen again, though it's nothing more dramatic than a "creative meeting" for the reality show. Keira Knightley poses and snarls fetchingly enough, but time will tell whether she can act or just attitudinize — in any event, Domino is written as a posturing and hollow collection of bad-girl reflexes, so there's nothing that even a seasoned and complex actress could've done that Knightley doesn't do. Like the character herself, she's needed only as a face, a voice, a body.

Domino is the sort of disreputable night out that I hesitate to recommend because it's disreputable in the wrong ways — it exemplifies pretty much everything I despise about the direction movies are heading. But Tony Scott works in a spirit of caffeinated roughhouse fun. It probably gets at the tone of bounty-hunting work more effectively than a more sober-sided account of the actual Domino Harvey's life could have. I have no idea if the film's aggressively cluttered plot is based on anything real, but it's structured as a bad-girl-makes-good parable with an Xtreme veneer. At the very end, we see the real woman herself, looking gaunt and tomboyish and almost shy, yet her eyes tell us more about the reality of her life than the preceding two hours. Those eyes almost shame us for what we've been watching. I had a good time, though — sort of.

neighbors and coworkers by donating blood on Thursday, October 27 at the Rochester Memorial Elementary School, 16 Pine Street. Donor hours are 3:00 pm to 8:00 pm. For an appointment, please call 508-763-2647.

The fact is, nearly 1,600 units of blood are needed each day to help those in need right here in our own community. It is a challenge to collect enough blood to meet the needs of hospital patients year round.

It only takes about an hour of time — and one small pinch — to become a hero to someone in need. Giving the "Gift of Life" is one way to help those in need. Every blood donation is an opportunity to help an accident victim, a surgical patient or a young adult like Allyson, battling leukemia, to name a few.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Some flashes of Aries ire might erupt as you confront an unusually bewildering situation. But you should be able to keep your temper under control as you work through it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) That marriage 'twixt the arts and practicality that Taureans excel at once again highlights your enjoyment of much of the week. However, you need to watch any sudden urge to splurge.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Even with all the plusses apparently outweighing the minuses, you still might want to defer an important decision to make sure you have all the facts you need.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) One or two problems might threaten to derail otherwise smoothly running situations at work or at home. But a few well-placed words should help get things back on track quickly.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) This could be a good time for all you Leos and Leonas in the spotlight to open your generous Lion's hearts and share the glory with those who helped you accomplish so much along the way.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You might want to get advice from someone who's been there and knows these situations better than you do, before investing time or money (or both) in a questionable matter.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Be careful how you handle a workplace matter that seems out of place in the schedule you've prepared. Before you act, one way or another, find out who set it up and why.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your entertainment aspect is strong this week. Besides providing a wonderful break from everyday obligations, sharing fun times brings you closer to those you care for.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Having a weekend fun fest? Your friend or relative who's down in the emotional dumps could perk up if you find a way to include him or her in your plans.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) If you're in one of those "the Goat knows best" periods, you might want to ease up and try listening to what others have to say. You could learn something.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18)

That new challenge is getting closer, and you should be out there now showing facts and figures to potential allies to help persuade them to rally to your support. Good luck.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Getting a head start on holiday plans could help free up some time later to spend on other projects. Meanwhile, a colleague has some ideas that you might find worth discussing.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are always there for others, and sometimes you need to be reminded that you need to be there for yourself as well.

Volunteers will make year-round, daily to weekly visits to record the stage height of the river, make general observations, and monitor water temperature. This data will help in developing a model to track reductions in base flow and extreme flow conditions. The information will assist towns in long-term planning for the protection of the Mattapoisett River.

Flow is a function of the water volume and velocity and is affected by both nature and by human-induced changes including the removal of shoreline vegetation, and water withdrawals for irrigation and drinking water. "Flow is important to water quality, and the living organisms and habitats in the river," said Tony Williams, Director of Monitoring Programs for the Coalition. "Stream flow can quickly increase and then recede during rain events where land has been altered to include greater areas of impervious surfaces."

Last summer, CBB staff along with volunteers from the Towns of Mattapoisett and Rochester, began to track water flow at the three locations. The project is part of a joint effort between the CBB, and the Massachusetts Riverways Program River Instream Flow Stewards (RI-FLS), and residents from the Towns of Mattapoisett and Rochester.

If you would like to volunteer or for more information, contact Tony Williams, Director of Monitoring Programs, williams@savebuzzardsbay.org, 508-999-6363, extension 203.

GOP Benefit Dinner

State Senator Scott Brown will be the featured speaker at a GOP Dinner on Friday, October 28 from 5:30 to 8:30 pm at the Wamsutta Club, 427 County Road in New Bedford.

Senator Brown represents the Norfolk, Bristol and Middlesex Districts in Massachusetts. He recently received the "Public Servant of the Year" award from the United Chamber of Commerce. Senator Brown was cited for his leadership in reforming the state's sex offender laws. In January of 2004, he was named by The Boston Herald as one of ten politicians to watch.

Tickets for the dinner are $35 per person. They may be obtained by calling Arthur Larravee at 508-990-7444. Part of the proceeds will benefit local Republican town committees.

Domestic Violence Vigil

The public is invited to join the Women's Center (formerly The Greater New Bedford Women's Center) on Wednesday, October 26 at 6:00 pm in front of the New Bedford City Hall to commemorate victims of domestic violence. October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Participants will be given candles, which will be lit before the group marches to the First Unitarian Church, located at 71 Eighth Street, where a memorial ceremony will unfold. The evening includes a grandfather, Michael Santos, sharing his family's experience with domestic vio-

The Laramie Project is the poignant story of a University of Wyoming student who fell victim to a hate crime. This production, used as a learning tool, opens the doors of communication against any of the crimes of hate that permeate and undermine the society in which we live. At the conclusion of the play, we are left with a tremendous sense of hope for our futures.
